

Friends of the Marlborough Public Library presents:

Mae West

Featuring The Delvena Theater Company

November 21, 2019, 7:00PM

Come visit with Mae West in a dressing room on the set of their 1940 production of My Little Chickadee.

This performance will bring Mae West to life while you laugh as the audiences did way back when. Learn about her personal life too in this humorous, yet informative production – an evening of fun.

After the performance, the actor will open up to the audience for a discussion regarding West.

Truly a unique experience!
